

Víg Zoltán (adjunktus, SZTE ÁJK)

Art as investment - the problem of forgeries

Fortunes are invested into artworks globally. However, a large portion of artworks on the market are forgeries. One of the reasons is the lax regulation in the field. The conference paper wants to present the legal consequences (both criminal and civil law) of art forgery.